PCOB Meeting Public Participation Rules

- Please adhere to respectful conduct, treat other attendees with courtesy, listen actively, avoid interruptions, and refrain from personal attacks or inflammatory language.
- For the public comment periods, for which there will be two opportunities, please wait for the designated time on the agenda to provide your comments. There is a three-minute time limit for individual comments, but all public participants are welcome to speak during both opportunities.
- When you speak, we request that you clearly state your name, your organization affiliation, if any, and whether you're a resident of Charlottesville, Albemarle County, or another jurisdiction.
- During public comment, the Board will not enter into dialogue. The Board will listen carefully to all comments. If there are specific questions, please submit them in writing to the PCOB Office staff after the meeting.
- Questions or additional comments can be sent to:
 - pcob@charlottesville.gov
