Individuals with disabilities who require assistance or special arrangements to participate in the public meeting may call the ADA Coordinator at (434) 987-1267 or submit a request via email to ada@charlottesville.gov. The City of Charlottesville requests that you provide a 48-hour notice so that proper arrangements may be made.

PCOB Meeting Public Participation Rules

Please adhere to respectful conduct, treat other attendees with courtesy, listen actively, avoid interruptions, and refrain from personal attacks or inflammatory language.

For the public comment periods, for which there will be two opportunities, please wait for the designated time on the agenda to provide your comments. There is a three-minute time limit for individual comments, but all public participants are welcome to speak during both opportunities.

When you speak, we request that you clearly state your name, your organization affiliation, if any, and whether you're a resident of Charlottesville, Albemarle County, or another jurisdiction.

During public comment, the Board will not enter into dialogue. The Board will listen carefully to all comments. If there are specific questions, please submit them in writing to the PCOB Office staff after the meeting.
